National Motorcycle Museum Honoring Veterans, Current Members of Military, Families by Offering Free Admission

ANAMOSA, Iowa - Veterans, current members of the military and their immediate families will be admitted free to the National Motorcycle Museum, Anamosa, Iowa on Veteran's Day, Thursday, Nov. 11. Visitors will be reminded of the role motorcycles played as seven military motorcycles will be on display.

National Motorcycle Museum Director Jeff Carstensen offers, "We invite all veterans, current members of the military and their families to come by the Museum for this special preview and show of respect for our troops from all military actions."

Cruise into the National Motorcycle Museum, located in Anamosa, Iowa, and experience the extensive line of over 275 motorcycles from around the world as well as thousands of photographs, posters, postcards and pieces of motorcycle memorabilia, plus a fabulous collection of antique toys. The National Motorcycle Museum is a not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) corporation. For more information, call 319-462-3925 or visit the Museum on the web www.nationalmcmuseum.org.
